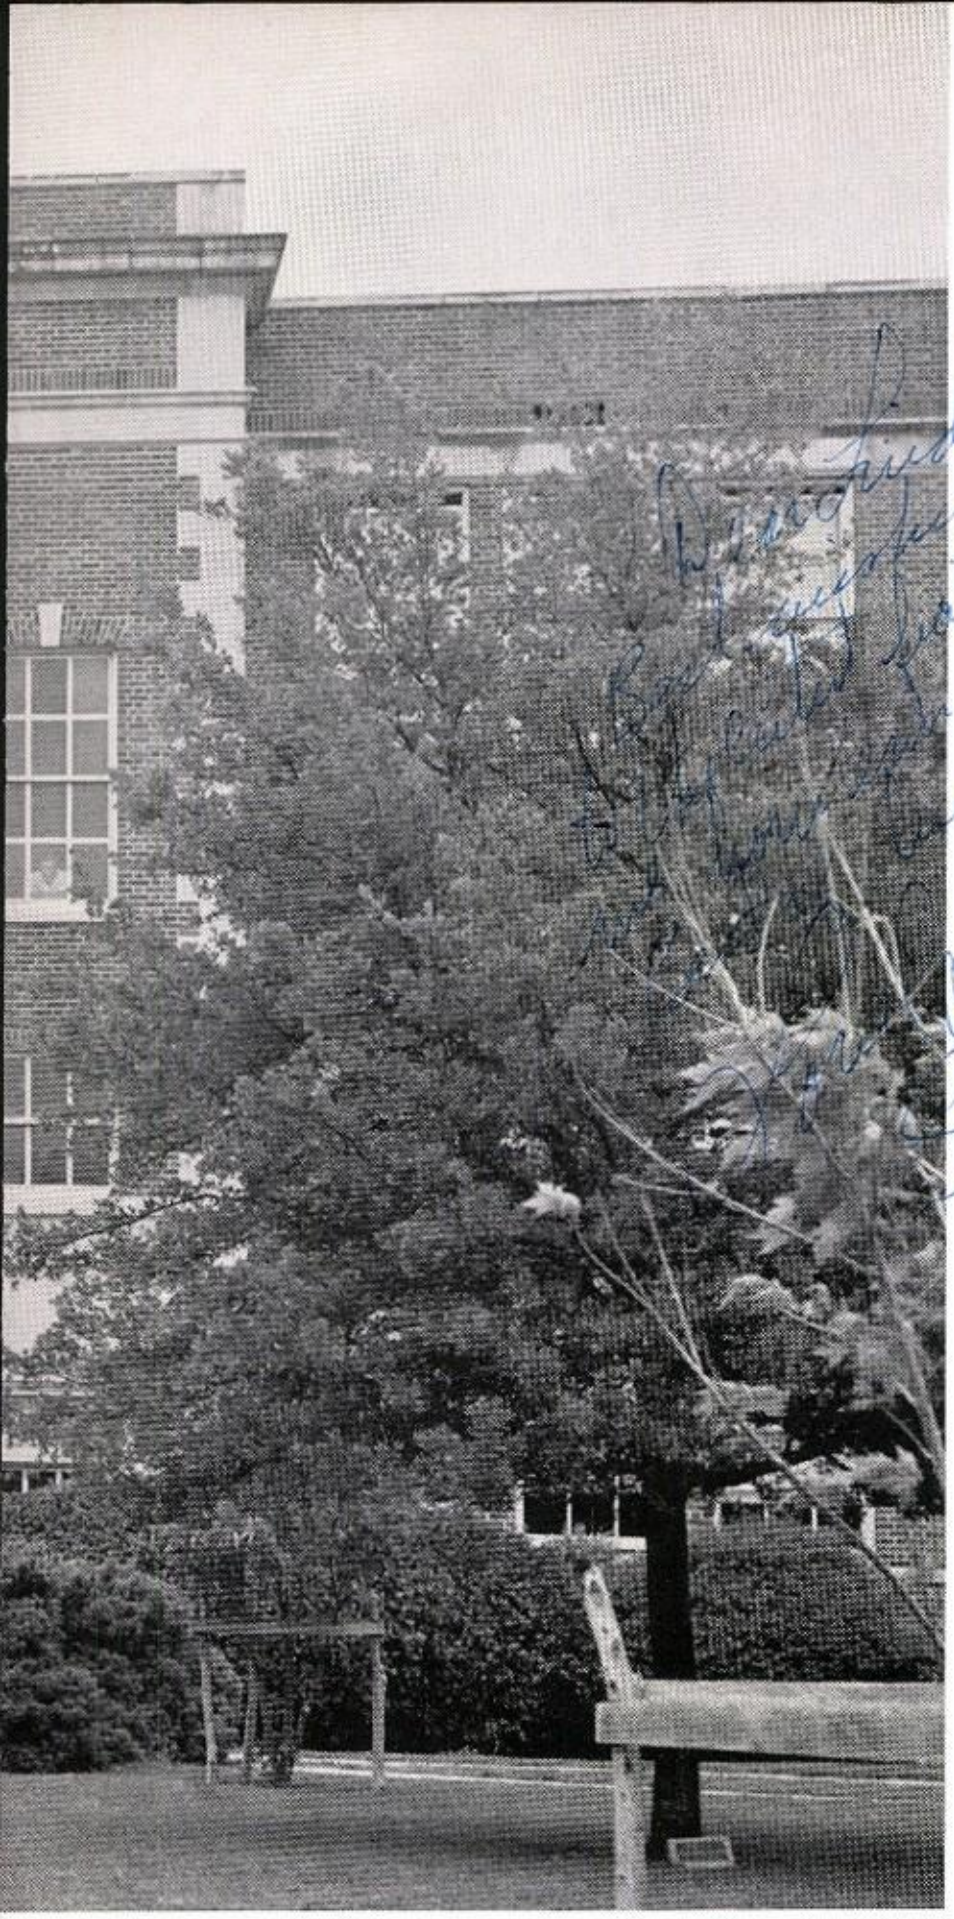
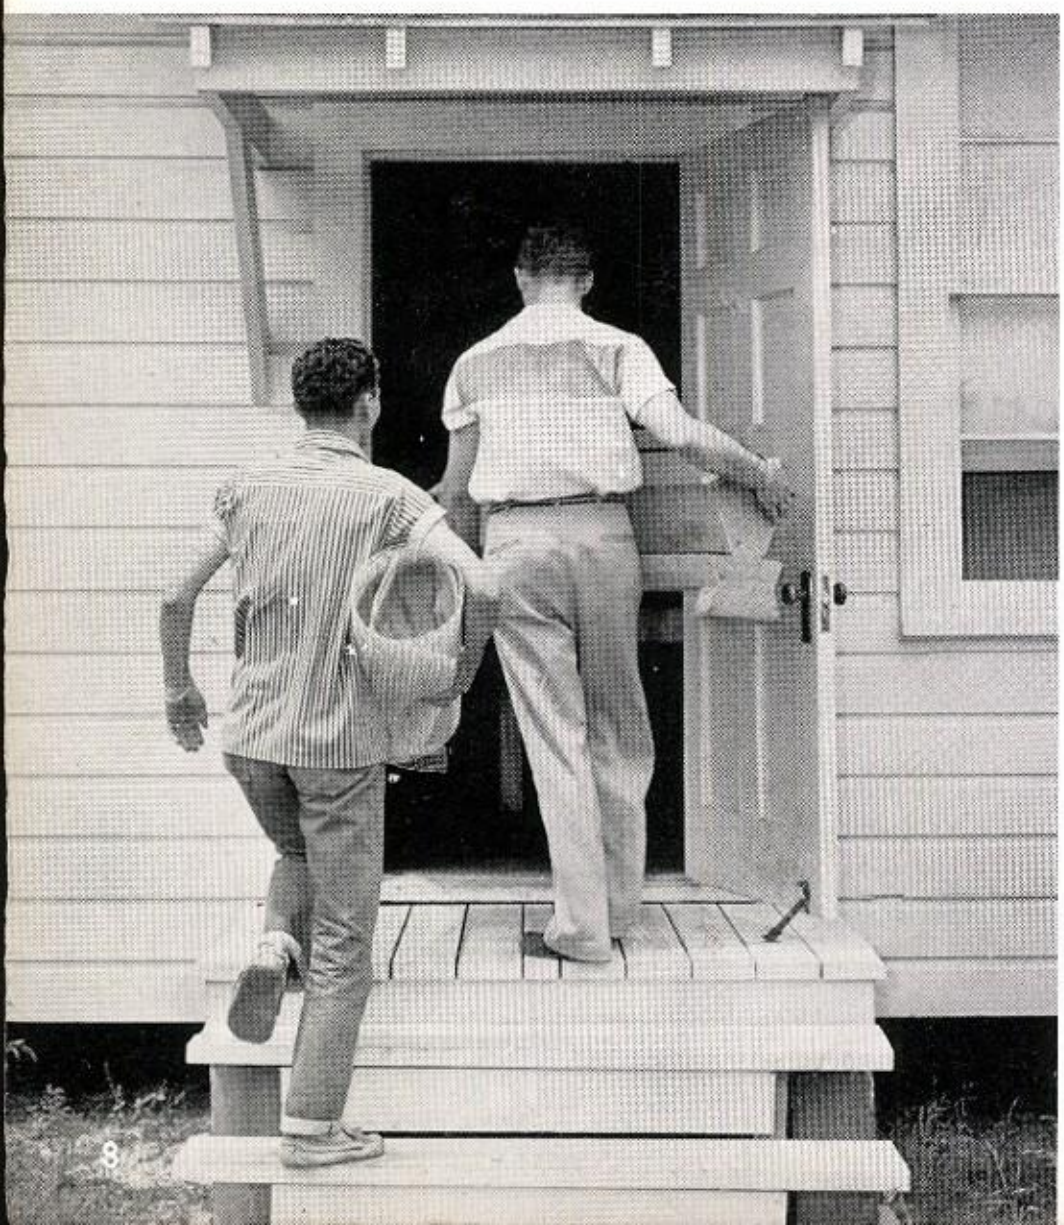
JEFFERSON DAVIS SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL

We Soon Learn the Ins-And-Outs of the Building . . .



Vocational Agriculture



Reserve Officers Training Corps

The Rear Campus Is a Busy Place . . .

Physical Education Classes, R.O.T.C. and Cadette Drill utilize every inch of ground in the rear of the building and leave no space for trees and shrubs. The four shacks, still in use, remind us of the days when twenty-six hundred students attended Jefferson Davis.

Carnegie Branch Library,

Students and teachers use Carnegie Library for reading and its beautiful campus for relaxation.

John Marshall Junior High School,

Over at John Marshall Junior High School are students who will soon cross Quitman Street to attend Jeff Davis.

a Pleasing View of . . .

the many faithful trees on the front campus.

Under these trees, we relax, study, and wait for the school bus.

The People who work here are Administrators,

The management of our school is the responsibility of the administrators. Mr. Mills is the over-all manager who co-ordinates and supervises all phases of activity. Working with him are other members of the administrative staff who are specialists in their fields. Because of their combined efforts, we live daily in an atmosphere of well-oiled efficiency pervaded by a feeling of friendliness and achievement.

MR. COY W. MILLS

is our principal

MR. J. PAUL RODGERS

The Assistant Principal and the Dean of Girls Have a Job That Few People Would Envy . . .

Disciplinary and counseling matters are referred to them. When we have problems, personal or otherwise, we seek out these two administrators, the boys to Mr. Rodgers and the girls to Mrs. Hurst. They have always found some solution.

MRS. MARIEMA HURST

The Office Personnel Is Friendly and Efficient . . .

Mrs. Sahualla handles secretarial matters for Mr. Mills and charts the percentages of grades made each six weeks. Since she also keeps all special equipment under lock and key, we must ask for things.

Mrs. Fautheree balances the accounts of all school funds and issues books and supplies from the book room. She takes our money for the books we leave on the bus.

Mrs. Matthews, with the assistance of student office helpers, lists and records absences on cards and on the daily absentee sheet. She is the one who calls our parents.

Mrs. Britton is in charge of registration, of keeping permanent record cards, and of counting credits for graduation. She records only what we make—nothing more.

The Counselors Are Indispensable . . .

MRS. LORRAINE NIX
Sophomore and Junior Counselor

They guide us in our selection of our classes and prepare us for graduation. As they assist us with our four-year plans, work and rework our programs, and help us to find our niche after graduation, they gain our confidence and friendship. We soon find ourselves frequently dropping into their offices for advice and information—and sometimes just to chat.

MR. MYRL JOHNSON
Senior Counselor

The Librarians Are Well Informed and Eager to Help . . .

In this air-conditioned room, where the walls are lined with books and the files are overflowing with pamphlets and bulletins, we spend many rewarding hours.

MRS. RENEE FEENEY is librarian.

MRS. MIRIAM TAPAL is assistant librarian.

The Nurse Supervises Our Health . . .

MISS MARIE SLAGLE
When we are ill, she knows exactly what diagnosis is needed. She relieves the pain or recommends that we see a doctor.

JANEEN CRAVEY
in her work as nurse's assistant, helps to get CHARLES GRAYSON, a football player, ready for the game with San Jacinto.

The clinic was a busy place during a recent epidemic of Asiatic flu.

The Cafeteria Is a Popular Place . . .

Here we meet our friends and discuss subjects important to us while we eat our lunch. This combination of food and friendship is enjoyable.

MRS. ONNA WELSH is the manager.

The "extra touch" she adds to the food makes us look forward to lunch time.

MISS IVY HILTON is the assistant.

Mary Dinkins prepares those delicious desserts; Pearlie Nichols, the tempting salads; and Lily Frances, as head cook, the hot dishes.

We are inspired by the teachings of our Faculty

Enthusiasm for poetry is aroused by our very competent teachers.

English Is a Required Subject . . .

MRS. VESTA LEPERE
as chairman, presides at departmental meetings.

The goals of the English Department are to improve our writing, reading, listening, speaking, and to give us a finer appreciation of literature and the fine arts.

MRS. RUTH ASHE
checks notebooks

while MRS. LOIS LEVRIER writes verse and MISS ANDRE FALLIGANT reads from her notes.

MISS HELEN MIMS, MRS. MARGARET REID, MISS BERNICE SANDERSON MRS. NEVA WEEKS

meet in the library to check tests.

The Language Arts Program Offers Variety . . .

English literature, advanced grammar and composition, journalism, public speaking, and drama are elective courses for English in the fourth year.

MR. GEORGE EVANS
instructs classes in journalism.

MRS. CLARA BONDURANT and MRS. INEZ BOUTON
Senior English Senior English

MISS JOAN ADAMS
directs all speech activities.

MRS. DAISY COE, MR. DARRELL HEARN, and MISS PAULINE WOODS use the tape recorder to perfect our pronunciation of foreign words.

Mathematics Presents a Challenge . . .

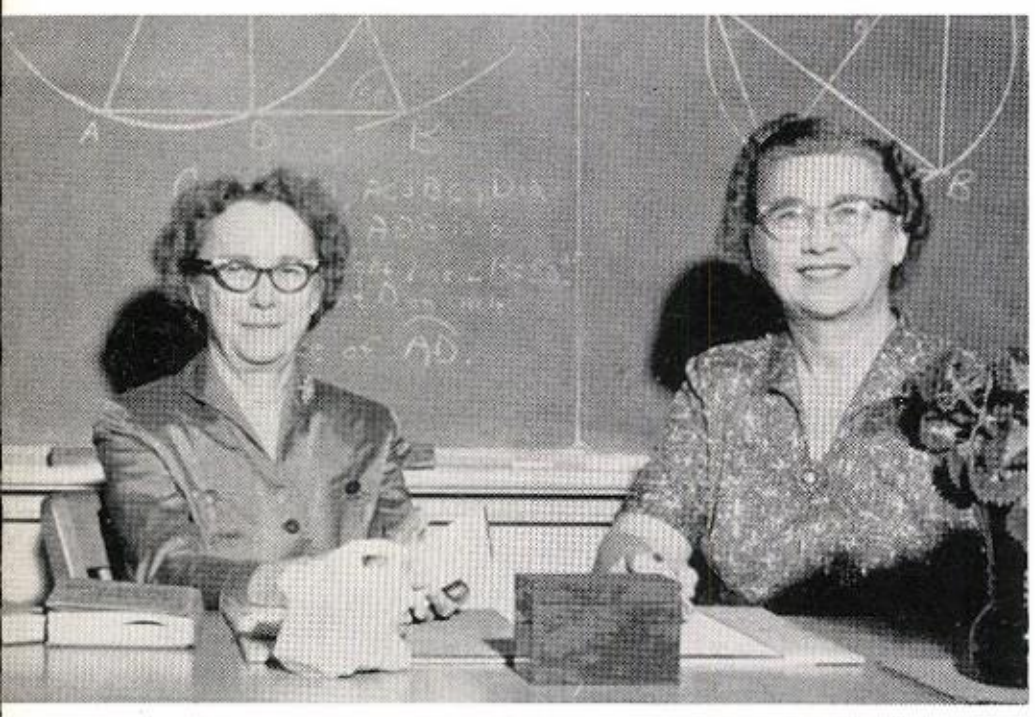
MRS. CAROLINE IVY is acting as chairman of the department.

In general and commercial mathematics courses we are taught the fundamentals of problem solving, and in algebra and geometry classes we develop a background for advanced courses in mathematics and science.



MRS. DELLA SANDERS, MRS. CORINE HERMANN, and MR. WALTER FARBER instruct classes in plane geometry—this day the lesson was based on the circle.

MR. W. L. LEGGETT, MRS. FERNE JENNINGS, and MR. J. D. SATTERWHITE take time out from their classes in commercial math and algebra to pose for our photographer.

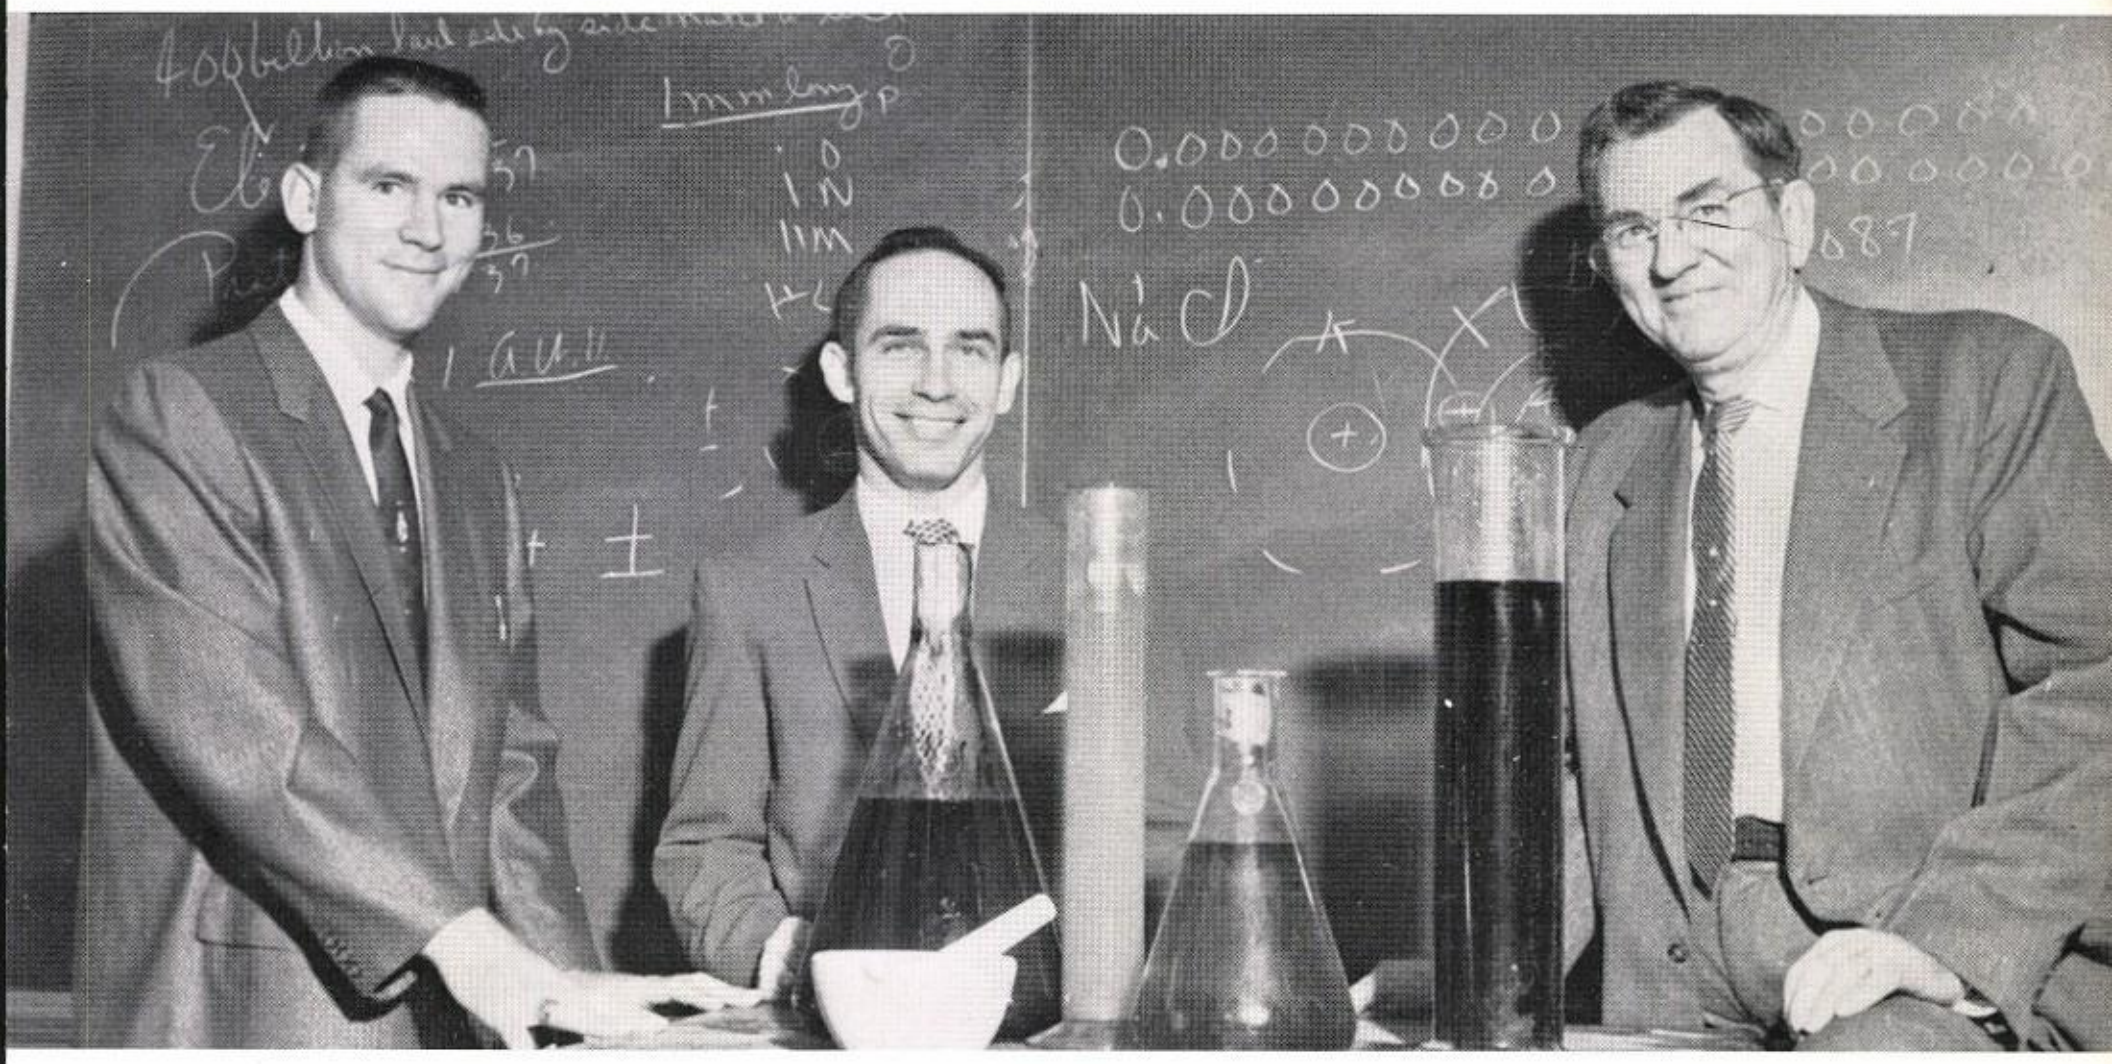
In Science Classes Mysteries of Life Are Revealed . . .

MR. BILLY FISK, MR. RALPH TETER, and MR. J. A. WILES

appraise Mr. Wiles's equipment set up for a lesson on color for Physics I.



MR. ALBERT GROSS, MISS LUTA BUCHANAN, and MISS LILY ANDERSON introduce the principles of life to all sophomores in biology class.

Social Science Develops Citizenship . . .

MISS ANNIE LAURIE FOWLER,
chairman of the department, teaches social problems.

MR. BILLY JO HALE
uses many maps and references in classes in government.

MR. MAX WEINER

MR. GEORGE EVANS
teach civics classes.

MISS ANN YARDLEY, MISS JUANITA WEBB, and MISS FRANCES NEWTON, teachers of American history, look over some new books in the library.

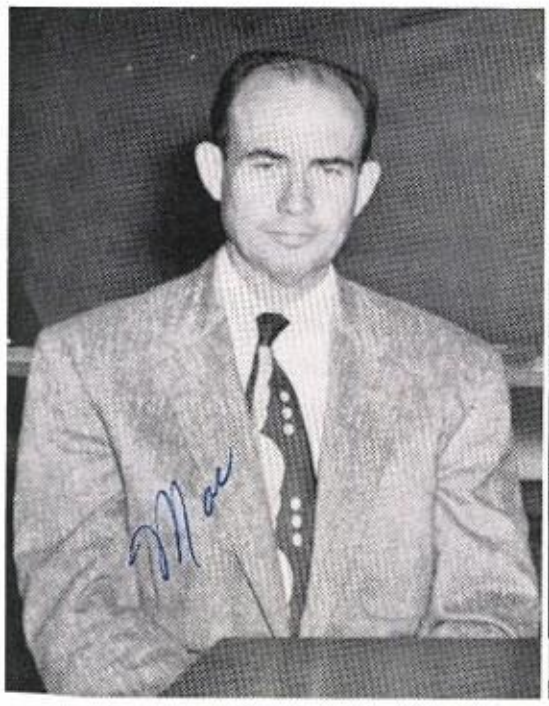
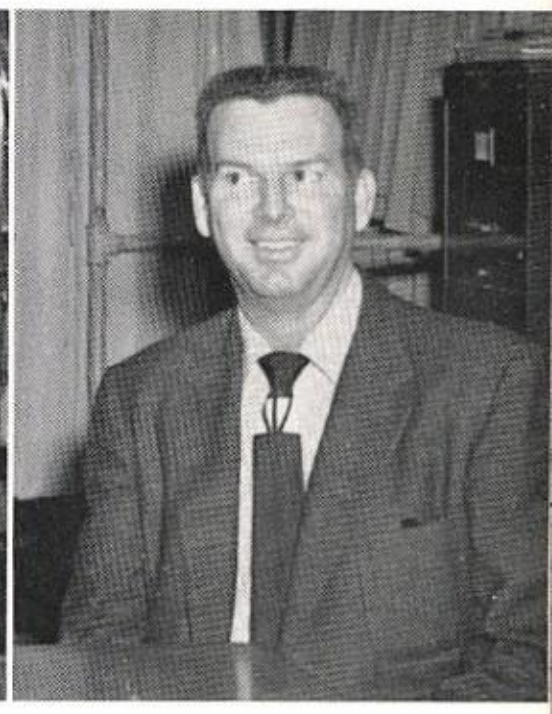
In Fine Arts Personal Talents Are Developed . . .





MR. HOLMES McNEELY and MR. BLISS MAPES direct instrumental and choral music, while MR. CARL HAYS instructs in art.

In Vocational Courses Skills Are Taught . .

These Presidents are making plans for organizing an Inter-club Council

Student Council

To become a member of the Student Council is one of the highest honors a student in Davis can attain, for each member is elected by his homeroom and represents that room at all meetings of the organization. The members serve for one semester.

The activities of this group are varied. They collect subscriptions for the Beauvoir and handle all matters which concern the student body as a whole.

The officers elected to serve this year are Sara Taylor, president; John Mendoza, vice president; Kelly Ritch, secretary-treasurer; Stan Migura, sergeant-at-arms; and Allen Lewis, reporter; assisted by a very able sponsor, Mr. Myrl Johnson.

C. Wilburn, B. Cox, J. Mudd, R. Walling, D. Morgan, R. Nix, J. Roark, D. Casper, I. Alvarado, C. Mayfield, R. Evans, S. Welch, M. Krause, L. Holder, B. Norton, A. Hudson, A. Smith, D. DuPree, J. Bridges, J. Santos, P. Stewart, R. Lizcano, E. Lizcano, M. Vela, A. Lewis, J. Mendoza, S. Taylor, K. Ritch.

American Legion

Probably the most exclusive organization at Davis is the American Legion club. Members are those students who earned the American Legion Award in junior high school.

The club collects the Christmas baskets for the needy. They sell senior pictures and usher at Commencement Exercises.

The officers this semester are Arthur Wammel, president; Katherine McClure, vice president; Nita Monkres, secretary; and Allen Lewis, sergeant-at-arms. The very dependable sponsor is Miss Frances Newton.

Robert Nix, Linda Brock, Dexter Morgan, Jean Sandlin, Judy Jennings, Miss Newton, Glen Andrus, Nita Monkres, Arthur Wammel, Katherine McClure, Allen Lewis.

The Junior Red Cross is composed of one student from every homeroom. The members donate their time and energy to help those who are less fortunate than they. The Club is sponsored by Mrs. Atchley.

Ruiz, Williams, Carpenter, Lilly, Elliot, Roberts, F. Sauseda, Mendoza, Rodriguez, B. Sauseda, Spencer, A. Davis, D. Davis, Miller, Lero, Hargraves, Atchley, Pray, Stephenson, Brittain.

Christian Student Union

The Christian Student Union strives to create a Christian atmosphere at school. In weekly meetings held every Tuesday morning, the club impresses upon the student body the fullness of a Christian life. Speakers are ministers, businessmen, or athletes, who have a message for the group.

The members have projects which they support. No student at Davis can enter the building at Christmas time without thrilling at the sight of the beautiful tree placed there by these Christian students. They give cash donations to the Pocket Testament League and to the Industrial Home to be used for Christmas baskets.

Every student is a prospective member and many students and teachers are regular attendants. In this group are Mrs. Lois LeVrier, the faithful sponsor, Charles Grayson, Joyce Holder, Rustic Karnauch, Sandra Bond, and Barbara Hoke.

Officers who were chosen to serve for this year are Sara Taylor, president; Karen Loften, secretary; Pat Reeves, program chairman; and Judy Jennings, pianist. The Union has no roster of members. Anyone who finds it worthwhile can drop into the auditorium once a week to join in this Christian fellowship.

The Library Club

Members of the Library Club are students who have volunteered to spend time each day assisting the librarians and you, the visitors to the library. The officers of the club this year are Rudy Gonzales, President; Sammy Kay Griffin, Vice President; Judy Jennings, Secretary-Treasurer; Charles Grayson, Sergeant-at-Arms.

First row: Bain, Campbell, Boyd, Apperson, Taylor, Deaton, Bollom, Crenshaw, Diaz, Brock.
Second row: Gonzales, Davis, Conine, Griffin, Grayson, Jennings.

History Club

The Jefferson Davis Chapter of the Texas Junior Historical Society—better known as The History Club—attempts to create and sustain the interest of the students in history. With their sponsors, Miss Frances Newton and Miss Juanita Webb, they often visit places of historical interest.

Membership in the club is open only to students who have been invited to join the club. To receive an invitation a student must have shown an active interest in history.

The officers are Sally Deaton, president; Esther Williams, vice president; Linda Plemons, recording secretary; Sandra Hauck, corresponding secretary; Rosemary Evans, treasurer; and Jean Mitchell, reporter.

Newton, Yokum, Davis, Crenshaw, Cravey, Deaton, Truss, Welch, Evans, Brown, Whitehead, Webb, Leu, Hodges, Connacher, Hill, Taylor, Wolfe, Griffin, Gruber, McBride, Mendoza, Bollom, Blum, Ferguson, Fredericks, Farrack, Mitschke, Dawson, Lero, Miller, McClure, Joseph, Williams, Stephenson, Craig, Hauck, Mitchell, Hoke, Plemons, Krause, Sanford, Schott, Spencer, Thaggard.

Future Nurses

Any student who is sincerely interested in nursing as a career may become a member of the Future Nurses' club.

The members take field trips to nearby hospitals to learn the jobs they will encounter as nurses.

The officers are president, Carol Elliot; vice president, Sammy Kay Griffin; secretary, Doris Davis; treasurer, Alice Stokes; and reporter, Leona Buys. Their sponsor is our school nurse, Miss Ernest Marie Slagle.

L. Miller, R. M. Lero, J. Rivera, C. Hill, A. Spencer, M. Davis, J. Cravey, L. Rodriguez, C. Apperson, R. Ferguson, N. Truss, B. Pray, C. Elliot, D. Davis, V. Crenshaw, F. Sauseda, R. Hernandez, A. Stokes, K. Loftin, I. Hernandez, S. Holder, S. Griffin, Slagle.

Future Teachers

The Jefferson Davis Chapter of the Future Teachers of America is composed of students who want to become teachers. They discuss what problems they will encounter as teachers. They decide what particular field they are interested in and what they will have to study.

Their sponsor is Mrs. Ruth Ashe. The officers are Sandra Hubbard, president; Bettye Pray, vice president; Suzanne Welsh, secretary; Jennie Wilson, treasurer; and Alice Stokes, historian.

National Honor Society

FALL

The Jefferson Davis Chapter of the National Honor Society is composed of students who have met the requirements. To be eligible they must have a high "B" average and excellent conduct. This, however, is not all. Then they must show exactly how much service they give to their school, community, and church. If they receive sufficient points on these, they are then eligible to take the initiation and final induction.

The sponsor is Mrs. Renee Feeney. The officers are Rudy Ambriz, president; Lee Ann Jett, vice president; Mary Helen Adame, secretary; and Sara Taylor, treasurer.

Glee Club

The purpose of the Glee Club is to train the voices of the members. They, in turn, use their talents to entertain the students and the public in musical programs. Certainly no group which appears before the students is more welcome than the Glee Club.

The director of the Club is Mr. Bliss Mapes. The officers are Joyce Robison, president; Ila Faye McCorquodale, vice president; Barbara Bennick, secretary; and Joy Walkinshaw, treasurer.

Loads of luck & best wishes to a wonderful friend!

Future Farmers of America

The Future Farmers of America is composed of boys who are vocational agriculture students and actively interested in farming. The purpose of the club is to develop agricultural leadership, cooperation, and citizenship.

The boys meet on Friday morning twice a month at seven o'clock to discuss their various projects. Some of the activities include participation in the Houston Fat Stock Show and the F.F.A. Show. Social activities include the Sweetheart Contest, a Father and Son Barbecue, and a barbecue for the boys only.

Distributive Education

The Distributive Education program, an affiliate of the National Organization, allows students to acquire money and experience while earning credits.

The students study the required subjects from eight-fifteen to eleven-thirty; then they leave the school to go to their respective jobs. They attend the state and national conventions of the organization. They elect a sweetheart every semester. This year the winner is Francis Dumesnil.

This energetic group is headed by Mrs. Elaine Walker.

Bowling Club

Those students who are seen rushing from the building at three o'clock every Tuesday afternoon are members of the Bowling Club. They must be at the Downtown Lanes at three-thirty; hence, the rush.

The Bowling Club has an Interscholastic League Team which bowls against other high school teams. Every week the name of the intramural winner is announced over the public address.

The sponsor is Miss Pauline Woods. The officers are Mary Evertson, president; Bill Schumann, vice president; Sara Taylor, secretary; Mary McClure, treasurer; and Herbert Delling, sergeant-at-arms.

Fire Patrol

An energetic group of boys around Davis High School is the Fire Patrol. This year all of the boys were members of our football squad. They make sure that the buildings are cleared safely, quickly, and quietly during a fire drill.

The club has no elected officers. Their sponsor is Mr. John Paul Rodgers.

The Booster Club

Everyone should, and from the size of the roster, practically everyone does, belong to the Booster Club. This fine organization of spirited students represents Davis to the rest of the city as much as our Cadettes or athletic teams. They sell Davis stickers, cushions, and pins. But most of all they sell Davis! At football games, pep rallies, basketball games, and other school meets they show the best side of Davis.

The sponsor is Mr. Ralph Teter. The officers are David Bradshaw, president; Julie Doerge, vice president; Beverly Cox, secretary; and Rudy Ambriz, treasurer.

Salas, Connacher, Aquirre, Rodriquez, Monkres, Dawson, Cox, Doerge, Bradshaw, Teter, Vela, Trejo, Coronado, Bruner, Smith, Seward, Cochran, Coronado, Hernandez, Joe, Rodriquez, Switzer, Porter, Karnauch, Wammel, Greenstein, Galindo, Brown, Andrus, DeLaney, Massey, Perkins, Cunningham, Cunningham, Brockman, Cochran, Miester, Raschke, Hernandez, Vasquez, Huck, Lindsey, Bono, Keys, Magee, Plemons, Bunting, Norton, Carpentar, LaFiette, Waits, Chebret, Wilcox, Terry, Wetz, Sharp, Beer, Taylor, Beer, Schroederm, Joseph, Stoviak, Ferguson, Hill, Coronado, Santos, Mayfield, Hernandez, Jiminez, Astorga, Dudley, Davidson, Cox, Glenn, Cox, Foster, Yokem, Adame, Spencer, Hinojosa, Pettigrew, Stephens, Partain, Lilly, Smith, Albertson, Hight, Harris, Banks, Claybourn, Sandlin, Allen, Smith, Cox, Davis, Francis, Davis, Simone, Johnston, Wilson, Davidson, Mosley, Griffin, Mitchell, Vetrano, Gauck, Farrak, Wisenbecker, Hoke, Wilkerson, Farrack, McClure, Burnham, Blum, Rasbeary, Jennings, Grayson, Lowery, Nias, Davis, Strickland, Frantis, Walkinshaw, Noble, McClure, Bollom, McClure, Lery, Taylor, Luna, Blackburn, Cravey, Glodfelty, Wilson, Lawson, Rochelle, Millner, Fredericks, Howard, Castro, Dickey, Roebuck, Cudd, Stone, Brock.

K.P. Club

Probably the most practical group in Davis is the K.P. Club. The members serve as cashiers, work at the water fountain, and supervise the conveyor in the cafeteria at lunch time. They are students who have chosen this type of work in place of a lab.

At the end of each semester the club has a small party in the school cafeteria. In the spring the old and new members attend the annual K.P. picnic. As a special treat this year, a hayride was planned.

The officers are Carol Elliot, president; David Bradshaw, vice president; Judy Blackburn, secretary; and John Franklin, treasurer. Mrs. M. A. Hurst is the sponsor.

B-Type Shop

The B-Type Shop was established to enable students to acquire practical working knowledge of tools and mechanical home appliances, building materials, furniture and house plans.

B-Type Shop is open to any student in any grade level. The course requires three regular class periods.

Cheerleaders

The cheerleaders create school spirit and keep it at the maximum. This year, however, the group seemed to be the very epitome of what a loyal Davisite should be. All through the unusually wet football season they led the cheers with undampened spirits. They were present not only at all sports events, but one or more appeared at all social and school functions to represent Davis.

The sponsor of this energetic group is Mrs. Nix, who is assisted by Head Cheerleader Julie Doerge.

The cheerleaders worked in couples: Kay Mosley and Johnny Slaughter, Julie Doerge and Larry Schramme, Barbara McKeehan and Wesley Hill.

We are proud of our choice of cheerleaders for '57-'58.

The smoothness and efficiency with which our three years' training in physical education is managed is accountable to the leadership of these three faculty directors and their class assistants.

After a Davis girl has been declared physically fit and taught the essentials of healthful living, with great vigor and energy she enters into the sports which are pictured on the following pages. It's beautifying and trying! Many stay after school hours for more exercise and excitement!

The BEAUVOIR Staff wishes to thank everyone who helped in putting out this year's annual. We especially wish to extend a very warm thank you to Mr. J. Paul Rodgers, who granted us special privileges and went beyond his bounds in helping us. Without his cooperation we could never have accomplished the many tasks of publishing a yearbook. We also wish to thank Mrs. Britton and Mrs. Matthews for the use of their files. All these people and many more were very important in this 1958 production of the BEAUVOIR.
